

Chasmanthium latifolium

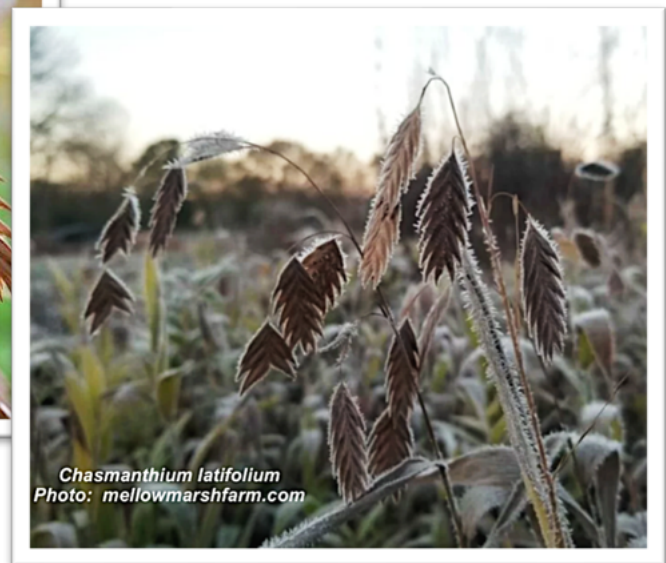

Northern Sea Oats

Plant type:	Perennial
Season of Interest:	Late summer - Winter
Height:	2-5'	Spread:	1-2'
Water needs:	Moist
Native Region:	AZ, KS, NM, OK, TX
Elevation:	to 6,500'
Important to know:	Recent genus change from Uniola

Maintenance:	Low-Medium. Self-sows freely; deadhead in fall to reduce volunteer seedlings next season.
Characteristics:	Cool season grass. Forms 2-4' clumps.
Garden Uses:	Borders, prairie & meadow, rain gardens, streams, and ponds.
Habitat:	Moist fertile woodlands, stream banks. Can be an aggressive spreader in moist areas.

Ease of Propagation: Medium

Propagation: by seed or root division. Stratify with moist sand/potting soil in the refrigerator for 2 to 4 weeks. Sow in situ in the fall or in cold frame in the spring.