

Penstemon linarioides spp Coloradoensis

Blue Mat Penstemon

Plant type:	Perennial
Season of Interest:	Late spring
Height: 8-12"	Spread: 12-16"
Water needs:	Moderate to xeric
Native Region:	CO, NM
Elevation:	to 9,500'
Important to know:	Silvery, evergreen foliage maintains its mounded shape and beauty through the winter months. Suitable for rock gardens. Grows in one foot diameter circular patches, primarily in the dry soils

Maintenance:	Low
Characteristics:	Evergreen, showy
Garden uses:	Suitable for rock gardens.
Habitat:	Semi-desert, foothills. Openings, woodlands.

Ease of Propagation: Easy

Propagation: Sow the seeds in cells or in situ 2 months before the last frost date with very light cover. Germination in 2 ½ months.

