

Penstemon virgatus

One-sided Penstemon

Plant type:	Perennial
Season of Interest:	Early to mid-summer
Height: 8-36"	Spread: 24"
Water needs:	Moderate, low, dry
Native Region:	CO, WY, NM
Elevation:	to 10,000'
Important to know:	Hand trim back dead stems in spring.

Habitat: Plains, foothills, meadows, hillsides, Pinyon-Juniper

Ease of Propagation: Easy

Propagation: Cold stratify seeds 8 weeks at 40°F. Sow, cover lightly. Seeds germinate around 65-70°F. OR In mid-winter sow the seeds in cells placed outside or in situ with very light cover.